

During the 1998â€“99 season, he was part of United's Premier League, FA Cup and Champions League treble winning team, a unique achievement in English football. Ironically, throughout this journey, he had to endure humiliation from his former teammates, who now became his main rivals. But as that season progressed, he met up with his former teammates again and was able to win another trophy with them 14 years after they lost it. Manchester United won the second Champions League final in history and it was the first Wembley final to be won by the club.
