What's New in V1.0.0. • First release.By Steve Gorman The MLB season-opener took place on March 26, and the fans in attendance will be seeing a different Marlins team than in 2017. Club president David Samson said the team's young core is now fully-developed. "If you think about the guys who were here in 2017, if you put them in the same lineup, they'll jump two levels," Samson said. "They'll be better. We'll have the best bullpen in the AL." The story of the 2018 Marlins is not a simple one; if it were, it would just be: "Yep, them again." The team was in last place in the NL East for months, and the only positive was the arrival of Giancarlo Stanton and Marcell Ozuna to Miami. The second-half improvement was steady but not drastic, and the Marlins finished 75-87. The Marlins were in last place after the trade deadline and the rest of the playoffs. The most notable off-field story was a Marlins' employee mocking Tom Brady's 6-year-old son at a charity event. The employee was fired, and the Marlins admitted responsibility. The biggest off-field surprise came in the form of a purchase from Giancarlo Stanton. Stanton bought the majority of the team and it is reportedly worth

Enter the realm of Interstellar Dance Platform BITS LAP, a room-scale VR experience where you are tasked with smashing a fast-scrolling platform of cubes to bits. Intense action that rewards you for your speed, precision, and timing, it's easy to put yourself into a trance state and fall into a genuine VR rhythm as your fists glow bright plasma with each impact. You'll use your fists and feet to turn a grand 2D court in your living room into an interstellar dance floor, with the ultimate goal of smashing the cubes to bits. Choose the speed at which your cubes fall, and as they collide, you'll use your prowess and reflexes to earn points. If they manage to form a decent pattern before you smash them, you can try to complete it to score bonus time and gain an extra boost. If you complete the pattern without crashing into any cubes, you'll earn a little bit more time. See it in Action: Game Details: Key features: 4-Player multiplayer: Roomscale + Co-op (Local and Global leaderboards) Level selectable modes (Practice, Quicktest, Training & Blitz) Music controller (play your music during the game or choose from a pre-selected Spotify playlist) Cut down on frustration with up to 20 seconds of ultra-short arcade-like mini-games that help improve your reaction time and reflexes. The DragonbornRace with breath and fire powersUnique fire breath allows you to breathe fire from the lungs of your character at players, burning their player controlled character. Your dragonborn race can equip items to gain resistance against fire spells and other powers.Damage blocking shield, which gives your character passive resistance against fire and will temporarily slow enemy powers.Awaken your dragon aspect, allowing you to take on the form of a dragon flying around the map to attack with your breath of fire attacks. You will grow bigger and stronger with each level as you gain health and speed from the egg that hatched from you. Dark KnightRace with melee combat, defence, and magicPowerful melee attacks and high defence means you can withstand heavy damage and fights. Use a wide range of weapon types and armor to increase your fighting power.BestiaryLight elemental pet harnesses that can be ridden to allow the character to deal high damage to nearby enemies.Elemental armour and shields that can be equipped to provide passive damage reduction. Add on abilities to the armour and shield to give you different styles of gameplay. HealerRanged damage, armour, and HP restorers. Heal the whole party, or a specific character within the party.Injured character will have a '!' icon over their head which means they are injured. The lower the icon, the more injured the character is. A magickal healer will heal 3 times as much as the normal healer. Dark WarriorRace with

What's new:

My Secret Pets! - Original Soundtrack is the soundtrack of the 2000 Disney Channel Original Movie of the same name. It was released on March 15, 2001. It is presented and mastered by Stephen Crane. Information The music to My Secret Pets! is a mix of rock, pop and new wave, which is typical of Disney Channel Original Movies scores. The original soundtrack is considered a big success since even after all these years, it still receives top critical, commercial and cult status. During the film's release, My Secret Pets! director Craig Gillespie stated that the project was "a lot of fun". He also praised the film's musical credit and musical score. Film Score The soundtrack contains two original jingles, five original songs and eight original instrumental pieces not included in the film. It features cast members from the movie performing with their instruments. The first jingle, titled "Hidden Friends", mentions that a part of the soundtrack is found under a "gold digger". It is performed by Dennis Lotter, who also appeared in the film in the role of Jack Bladesong. The second jingle, "Main Title", is performed by Jenny McCarthy. The pop-rock song "Don't Be Afraid" is performed by Sara Bareilles. The score also includes two songs performed in the film, "Feelin' Stronger" and "Happiness"; and three other songs performed by the film's cast members: Alanis Morissette's "Ironic", Jake's "I Don't Want to Leave" and Josie's "Here's to Me". The second film's cast member, in his role as onscreen boyfriend, performs the song "So Innocent". "Cowboys in Love", performed by My Chemical Romance (as the fictional band Dog Day Sunrise), is not present in the soundtrack.
