Oh and it also has RPG elements. In-game there is an RPG like action menu with the control of your allies. The story begins with you waking up on a pile of corpses, while your convoy is in some unknown disaster. You can choose your allies and allies can be customised on the left. With some abilities and some potions, weapons and more to earn and upgrade you can play as either an AI, or as the main hero (which you play as from the start) The basic plot is a story of a kid who has to survive in the middle of a cursed forest, with the help of a super truck, and his companions. Each level is a real life map, in a real life on the rails system. You start by choosing the level and your convoy and pass through the forest. As you pass every roadblock, you have to choose the truck from the many options you have available. The less trucks you use the better it is. All-in-all it should take you about 15 mins to beat the game. Bugs and crashes: When an event is triggered or the player is in the middle of a battle, when the game is over.
