The 13th edition of the KPMG-organised 'Entrepreneurship Week' started from May 14, 2018 and will end on May 20, 2018. This edition of the week will have more focus on start-ups, which is a follow-up to last year's edition that had focus on SME's. The week is being held in the heart of Delhi and will cover five star hotels and private residential apartments. Out of the total 550 seats, 40% of the seats are for SME's, 20% for B-school students and 20% for MCA students. If you have applied for the event, you can get more updates as the registrations are live. Other events This entrepreneurship week will also have other events that will cover current topics and be a platform for discussion among students and entrepreneurs. The events include as follows: 1. 'Developments in Technology' – a discussion between HRIL MD Anshuman Daga and founders of Minds Apartments 2. 'Winds of change: Opportunities and challenges in the Fintech space' – An event where the panel will include representatives of the government, a commonwealth bank, government employees, a construction company, an insurance company, and a fintech firm. 3. 'How to pitch?' 4. 'Entrepreneurship Workshop' 5. 'Real estate' – An event discussing the current marketing strategies of the real estate industry The entrepreneurship week is mainly meant for students with an entrepreneurial bent of mind. Usually the participants are the ones who have a better idea about what they want and how to go about it. It includes talks and panel discussion about various entrepreneurship themes, and an onsite startup contest, along with the usual networking and deal-making. The KPMG's entrepreneurship week is being held in association with the 'Entrepreneurship Park' in Mayapuri, NSE, the 'Airtel Youth Forum' (AYF) and the 'Entre 500' initiative. KPMG Entrepreneurship Week 2018 covers all the aspects of becoming an entrepreneur, including taking a new business idea to the market, or raising money for a new venture. This includes talks from successful entrepreneurs, among other things. KPMG conducts four bootcamps
