As an example, it can take a player up to one hour to train in full-motion capture suits and program their skills. With HyperMotion Technology, a game developer only needs minutes to create the various skills and challenges players can use in FIFA. Using the FUT mode, players can test out the new gameplay changes in FIFA with the new FUT live event. Hierarchical Team Tiers Another new feature in FIFA 22 is the introduction of the new Team Tiers feature. Players can now choose to play as a Real Madrid, Barcelona, Bayern Munich, Juventus or Tottenham Hotspur team in FIFA. Players can also now use the new “Real Madrid and Barcelona” team mode to play with a team made up of the most significant players from the two clubs. Real Madrid’s legendary players include the likes of Zidane, Raul, Ronaldo and Casillas, while Barcelona is home to some of the world’s most talented players such as Messi, Xavi, Neymar, Iniesta and Puyol. Daily Competitions On the FIFA Ultimate Team day-to-day grind, players will compete in a similar fashion as they do in FIFA Ultimate Team. There are Ultimate-Team-based challenges where you can earn points and gain XP by successfully completing them. These challenges allow players to earn bonus XP points for completing the objectives within them. There is also a way to earn points for other challenges. Players can earn points by completing Ultimate Team challenges and then competing in challenges that offer more points. Players have to complete both challenges. For every 4 points earned, players also earn a daily ticket for one of the new tournaments: Defender of the Year, International Friendlies, Master of the Mix, Lucky Numbers, National Cup, Stadium Challenges and Tournament of Champions. Players can unlock the 6 new tournaments by leveling up with tickets earned in the challenges. Time Attack FIFA Ultimate Team has many more interesting new features. As a bonus, FIFA 22 will let players play as a professional player in a live and precise version of “Time Attack,” where players are timed to earn their best performance. Each player can play with custom-designed FIFA 22 Ultimate Team kits. All the other Ultimate Team gameplay features are going to be available in “Time Attack.” Players will be timed to collect coins

Think of FIFA as a videogame engine in which you can build a world of soccer. On the field, you choose your 11 athletes, set your tactics and work to win the game. On the sidelines, you choose your coach and earn gameplay improvements to improve his team. FIFA feels massive and will challenge players to master more than 600 skills. From ball skills to tackling, you'll build a soccer dynasty by managing your players, unlocking player cards, training your team and competing in the World Tour. The new challenge system gives players even more ways to play. With a new progression system and career mode, players can work towards personal objectives, teams can join leagues and earn greater rewards. Real-Life Player Development With as many as 600 new cards and new mechanics in each position, we've built an engine where every aspect of player development is player-driven. And to make player progression personal, players can easily unlock thematic items for their favourite teams and players, unlocking new items to support their clubs. Players can take their career even further by working to master all 600 skills in Career Mode.

Player Testing We've tested every update, tweak and feature of FIFA 22 with players to make sure that everything is just right. We work with feedback we get from test participants, community feedback and player data on hundreds of items and features. We're constantly adjusting and improving on new features and specs, but we're always listening and taking input from our players.

FIFA Tactical and Player Control We've made smaller changes to fundamentals like passing and shooting, and bigger changes to tactics. A better passing AI allows your players to create more opportunities in the final third. A tweaked 'second-half' defensive AI helps your team keep the ball in the final third after halftime. And a more flexible formation system means that every match is different and every team can experiment. All of this is supported by the new Player Performance System, which measures the physicality of your players and their positioning on the pitch, allowing you to make small tweaks to create a more balanced, tactical team.

Three New Game Modes We've expanded our match engine and
